Tidewater Arts Outreach benefit March 12 Featuring Singer/ Songwriter Lawrence Lambert at Granby North

WHO: Tidewater Arts Outreach – We bring live music and arts activities, programs and entertainment to people who are in Hampton Roads day programs, homes, facilities and institutions or are otherwise isolated from society.

WHAT: A concert featuring singer songwriter Lawrence Lambert, coupled with an artful silent auction that features more than one dozen artists, both benefiting Tidewater Arts Outreach. Mr. Lambert, as part of the acoustic trio Big Wide Grin (www.bigwidegrin.com), has toured with legendary blues man Keb' Mo', and shared the stage with artists such as Janis Ian, the Waybacks and Harriet Schock.

WHERE: The recently two-thumbs up reviewed Granby North Restaurant at 9619 Granby Street in Norfolk's Ocean View, www.granbynorth.com

WHEN: Sunday, March 12 from 3 – 6pm.

WHY: Support TAO! Tidewater Arts Outreach brings music and arts to adult day programs, convalescent homes, hospitals, centers for individuals with disabilities, rehabilitation centers, and family homeless shelters. TAO performances, programs and activities promote human interaction, happiness and healing for people who have limited access to the arts, due to health, economic or social circumstances.

By creating regular opportunities for artists to present the arts to special needs audiences in a wide range of institutions and facilities, Tidewater Arts Outreach supports the spirit of voluntarism in the music and arts community, including students, professionals, and enthusiasts.

HOW: The tickets are $20 in advance and can be purchased at Granby North or by mailing a check to TAO Benefit Concert: 512 Twelve Oaks Court, Chesapeake, VA 23322. Make checks payable to: Tidewater Arts Outreach. Seating is limited. Delicious coffees, treats and a raffle are included in your $20 ticket price.
