Tidewater Arts Outreach Benefit March 12 Features Singer/ Songwriter Lawrence Lambert Artful Silent Auction, Coffeehouse and Concert hosted by Granby North Restaurant

NORFOLK: A benefit concert from 3 -6 pm on Sunday, March 12 at Granby North Restaurant (www.granbynorth.com) features singer songwriter Lawrence Lambert, coupled with an artful silent auction with art by Susan Mariner, Debi Stadlin, Donna Drozda and even Mr. Lambert himself, is benefiting Tidewater Arts Outreach (TAO).

“We’re excited to have an excellent performer like Lawrence and over 15 wonderful visual artists come together to promote and raise funds for TAO. This enables us to bring the joy of visual and performing arts to special needs persons who have limited access to the arts otherwise. With this sold-out show, ticket holders can get a glimpse of what TAO does every time a performer enters a nursing care center, a homeless family shelter or similar underserved locations,” said MaryAnn Toboz, TAO president.

The TAO concert and silent auction, featuring Lawrence Lambert and several regional visual artists, promises to be a visual, auditory and grass roots good time for all. There will be delectable sweets and robust coffee included in the ticket price as well.

Support TAO! Tidewater Arts Outreach brings music and arts experiences to adult day programs, convalescent homes, hospitals, centers for individuals with disabilities, rehabilitation centers, and family homeless shelters. TAO performances, programs and activities promote human interaction, happiness and healing for people who have limited access to the arts, due to health, economic or social circumstances.
