Tidewater Arts Outreach (TAO) is Hampton Roads non-profit organization that shares the healing power of the arts by bringing live, quality music and arts experiences to people in Hampton Roads who are in homes, facilities, programs and institutions. TAO matches performers, artists and musicians with opportunities to share their talents with people of all ages who have special needs.

Since its founding in March 2004, more than 120 programs have been shared at facilities with populations above 8,000 individuals, utilizing the gifts and talents of more than 80 artists and musicians. In carrying out its mission, TAO works to increase awareness about special needs populations in our community.

Photos from performances, information about our programs, and a calendar of performances and programs is on the organization website, www.TWartsoutreach.org.
